

H6R – REHABILITATION COUNSELOR

October 20, 2000

Title/Class Code	Education and Experience	Substitutions
REHABILITATION INTERN H6R1IX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in one of the following: Counseling, Rehabilitation Teaching, Education, Orientation & Mobility, Psychology, Social Work, Sociology, Behavioral Science, or Human Resources. All incumbents have the opportunity to complete the below-mentioned required coursework. ALL coursework MUST be completed within 5 years after State Certification as a condition of continual employment. The following coursework or acceptable employment must be completed to become a Rehabilitation Counselor I. ONE graduate course with a primary focus in the THEORIES AND TECHNIQUES OF COUNSELING AND FOUR graduate courses with a primary focus in the following areas: Vocational assessment, Occupational information and/or job placement, Medical and/or psychological aspects of disability, Community resources and/or delivery of rehabilitation services. Upon completion of 36 months of acceptable employment experience, 12 of which must be under the supervision of a CRC certified supervisor (as defined by the CRC), would qualify the individual to apply for CRC credential. Each additional 12 months of acceptable employment may substitute for two of the four graduate courses.	There are no substitutions for the minimum requirements.

REHABILITATION COUNSELOR I H6R2TX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling OR possession of a current Certified Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC) OR be eligible to apply the CRC credential.	1) Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in one of the following may substitute for the Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling (Counseling, Rehabilitation Teaching, Education, Orientation & Mobility, Psychology, Social work, Sociology, Behavioral Science or Human Resources). A key element for this substitution is that THE DEGREE MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING COURSEWORK: ONE graduate course with a primary focus in the THERIES AND TECHNIQUES OF COUNSELING AND FOUR graduate courses with a primary focus in the following areas: Vocational assessment, Occupational information and/or psychological aspects of disability, or Community resources and/or delivery of rehabilitation services. All required coursework must be completed to into this level. 2) Upon completion of 36 months of acceptable employment experience, 12 of which must be under the supervision of a CRC certified supervisor (as defined by the CRC), would also qualify the individual to apply for CRC credential. Each additional 12 months of acceptable employment may substitute for two for the four graduate courses.
---	---	---

REHABILITATION COUNSELOR II H6R3XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling OR possession of a current Certified Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC) OR be eligible to apply the CRC credential, which was issued by the Commission for Rehabilitation Counselor (CRCC) OR be eligible to apply for the CRC credential AND one year of professional experience appropriate to the work assignment.	1) Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Master's degree in one of the following may substitute for the Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling (Counseling, Rehabilitation Teaching, Education, Orientation & Mobility, Psychology, Social work, Sociology, Behavioral Science or Human Resources). A key element for this substitution is that THE DEGREE MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING COURSEWORK: ONE graduate course with a primary focus in the THEORIES AND TECHNIQUES OF COUNSELING AND FOUR graduate courses with a primary focus in the following areas: Vocational assessment, Occupational information and/or psychological aspects of disability, or Community resources and/or delivery of rehabilitation services. All required coursework must be completed to into this level. 2) Upon completion of 36 months of acceptable employment experience, 12 of which must be under the supervision of a CRC certified supervisor (as defined by the CRC), would also qualify the individual to apply for CRC credential. Each additional 12 months of acceptable employment may substitute for two for the four graduate courses.
REHABILITATION SUPERVISOR I H6R4XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in a field appropriate to the work assignment AND four years of professional experience appropriate to the work assignment.	Four years of professional experience in the appropriate specialty area may be substituted for the bachelor's degree on a year-for-year basis. A master's degree in a field appropriate to the work assignment may be substituted for the bachelor's degree and one year of the experience.
REHABILITATION SUPERVISOR II H6R5XX	Graduation from an accredited college or university with a bachelor's degree in a field appropriate to the work assignment AND five years of professional experience appropriate to the work assignment, one year of which must have been managing and supervising the day-to-day operations of a single rehabilitation program including budget and policy planning, development and implementation.	Four years of professional experience in the appropriate specialty area may be substituted for the bachelor's degree on a year-for-year basis. A master's degree in a field appropriate to the work assignment may be substituted for the bachelor's degree and one year of the experience.